

The 19th International Congress of Maritime Arbitrators Preliminary Notice

The International Congress of Maritime Arbitrators (ICMA) is an important academic exchange forum in the field of international maritime arbitration. Held for every two or three years, ICMA has been known as the Olympics for maritime arbitration.

Since 1972, 18 conferences have been successfully held. The 19th ICMA will be organized by China Maritime Arbitration Commission in Shanghai in May 2015. This will be the first time that ICMA has ever been held in mainland China.

We sincerely invite you to attend this ICMA. For more information, please check the official website:
